

Ore-Ida Council
Kodiak Trek
July 27-31, 2010

Kodiak Trek: a high adventure experience plus an outdoor leadership course

Kodiak is one of three courses in the Venturing Nature of Leadership program.

Kodiak is not taught indoors or in a classroom; it is done completely outdoors utilizing examples from nature to illustrate principles of good leadership.

Become a better leader while having the experience of a lifetime!

The Kodiak Trek is based out of Salmon River High Adventure Base, SRHAB, located near Riggins, Idaho, and includes rafting, hiking, and rappelling in some of Idaho's most beautiful mountains and forests. The trek is open to Venturers and Scouts age 14 and over who have completed eighth grade.

Fees (including food) per participant:

- $245.00; Gold Card units, $230.00
- Non-refundable deposit of $25.00 per participant due by April 1, 2010
- Late fees of $10.00 for each participant after June 4, 2010

Check the SRHAB Leader's Guide for information about trek preparations. Go to <http://oreida-bsa.org>, click on camping in the menu, and then SRHAB.

For more information contact:
Beverly Barrett, Ore-Ida Council
Phone: (208) 376-4411
Email: beverly.barrett@scouting.org

